2422. SHRI M. A. BABY: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether any information is available with his Ministry regarding any contribution recorded under FCRA sent from abroad by any religious/community based association or organisation or contribution received in India by any religious—or community based organisation from abroad;

(b) if so, the names and the amount sent by and received by different organisations during the last 5 years; and

(c) whether there has been any complaint that the money thus received in India by any such organisation has been utilised for the purposes other than declared in the aimed and objects of the organisation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MOHD. MAQBOOL DAR): (a) to (c) Section 6 of the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976 provides, inter alia, that no association having a definite cultural, economic, educational, religious or social programme shall accept foreign contribution unless such association registers itself with the Central Government in accordance with the rules made under the Act. The Act further provides that every such association may if it is not registered with the Central Government, accept any foreign contribution only after obtaining the prior permission of the Central Government. The associations so registered or permitted by the Central Government to accept foreign contribution are required to submit annual accounts in the prescribed form giving details of receipt and utilisation of foreign contribution. An annual report based on the information received from such associations is prepared by the Central Government. This report contains the names of association receiving foreign contributions as well as the names of major donor countries and donor organisations. Copies of the annual report are also placed in the Parliament Library.

According to information available, the total amount of foreign contribution received by various associations, including those having a religious programme, during the period 1991-92 to 1995-96 was as follows:—

Year	Amount Rs. in Crores
1991-92	1412,13
1992-93	1584.29
1993-94	1865.70
1994-95	1892.43
1995-96	2168.84

The annual report for 1996-97 will be prepared in due course.

There are complaints, at times about misuse of foreign contribution.
